Ite ad Joseph...Go to Joseph

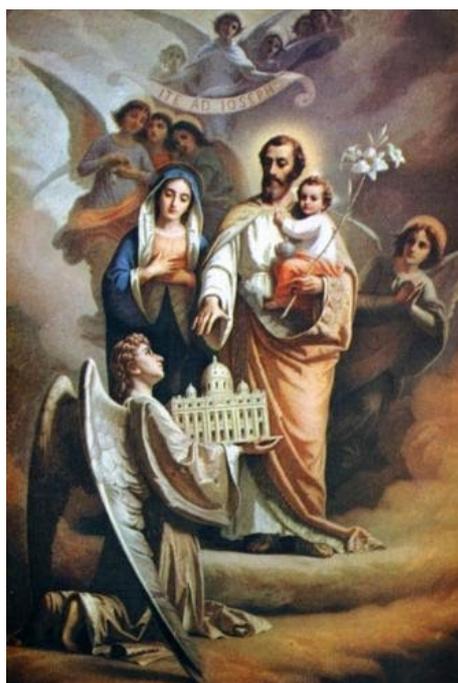

In a world where we live under so much pressure, now more than ever we must "Go to Joseph." His feast day is on 19th March.

Joseph, meaning "God will add" appears about a dozen times in the Gospels, mainly in the first two chapters of Matthew's Gospel, in connection with the early life of Jesus. Since in God's plan of salvation Joseph was to legally insert Jesus into the line of King David from whom, according to the prophets, the Messiah would be born, he was probably born at Bethlehem - the City of David. He was destined to become the spouse of Mary. About him the Bible has little more to say other than he was a "just man" - an expression which indicates how faithfully he fulfilled his roles of guarding God's greatest treasures on earth: Jesus and Mary. Although descendent of King, Joseph who worked by the sweat of his brow - he was a carpenter, a manual labourer.

In the sixteenth century, devotion to Saint Joseph flourished in Spain. Saint Teresa of Avila (+1582) became his great devotee. She praised him as a helper in every need. By the 1550s she began reforming the Carmelite Order, placing this difficult project, under Joseph's protection. Twelve of the seventeen new monasteries she founded were dedicated to the Saint, and all of them were adorned with his statue.

One of her friends, the Carmelite Priest, Jeronimo Gracian, coined the phrase "Ite ad Joseph" ("God to Joseph") from the story of the Old Testament patriarch Joseph in the Book of Genesis. This quote was often inscribed on the altars and images. The Foundress of the Little Sisters of the Poor, Saint Jeanne Jugan (+1879) made Saint Joseph patron of all its homes for the elderly. In Montreal, Canada, Saint Andre Bessette (+1937), a brother of the Holy Cross, always advised people with troubles to pray to him.

In 1870 Blessed Pope Pius IX declared him patron of the Universal Church. In 1955 Pius XII introduced the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker on 1st May. Pope Saint John XXIII inserted his name in the First Eucharistic Prayer. Pope Saint John Paul II in his Apostolic Exhortation Redemptoris Custos places Saint Joseph in the foreground of efforts to renew the family and the Church. Pope Francis celebrated the inaugural Mass of his of his Pontificate on the Solemnity of Saint Joseph and inserted his name in each of the other three Eucharistic Prayers. He has spoken too about his personal devotion to the statue called the 'Sleeping Saint Joseph' which he has on his desk. During an Apostolic Visit to the Philippines a few years ago, he said that Saint Joseph was his favourite saint: "I have great love for Saint Joseph, because he is a man of silence and strength. On my table I have an image of Saint Joseph sleeping. Even when he is asleep, he is taking care of the Church!"

St Mary's Grounds Help Required

After 10 years of faithful and dedicated service Siobhan Gainford is stepping down from her duties of looking after the church gardens/grounds. Siobhan has helped enhance our church so much with the beautiful flowers she has planted, especially in the circle and memorial area, and also her incredible vision and knowledge.

We thank Siobhan very much for all her efforts and all she has done to make St Mary's so welcoming and attractive to visitors. We now need someone to volunteer to take on these duties and coordinate the team of volunteers or look to pay gardeners (which is costly). If you are interested speak to Fr John-Paul.

Alpha Update

Last Monday we had 22 attendees at Alpha, some from the previous week and some new. It was a deeper conversation than the previous week, but fruitful.

Alpha will continue tomorrow, Monday 17th March, with the title 'Why and How Do I Pray?'

Why not pop along in you can, all are most welcome.
